* Art Unit: 1651

The amendment filed 4/16/03 is acknowledged. Claims 1 and 3 are being considered on the merits.

Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is vague, indefinite and confusing in that it is directed to a "composition of matter" prepared in a detailed series of steps, wherein the mutants of a certain strain are indicated as "capable" of a certain process of biotransformation. However, the properties and purpose of the polypeptide which is recovered, and which appears to constitute the "composition of matter", are not defined with any particularity.

Claim 3 is vague, indefinite and confusing in the use of the phrase "is capable of allowing the separable elution of a fraction comprising a polypeptide". It is unclear what is intended, since this phrase does not constitute a positive limitation. The phrase is open to interpretation as to the circumstances of "capable of allowing" and of "separable elution. That the indicated size range is the size of the polypeptide recovered is not specified with any particularity.

No claim is allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
